

17th June 2008 Registered with Charity Commission

2nd NHS approved study

6 Cancer Detection Dogs

Opened first HQ in Westcott, in a leaky, cold office space

Peer reviewed study
Canine screening of bladder cancer using urine samples published in Cancer Biomarkers

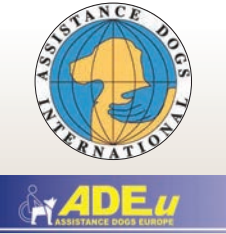

Daisy warned Claire about her own breast cancer saving her life

Medical Detection Dogs moved to a new headquarters in Great Horwood, near Buckingham

Dr Claire Guest awarded Honorary Doctor of Science in recognition of her outstanding contribution to development of new approaches for the detection of life threatening diseases

Accredited as a member of Assistance Dogs International and Assistance Dogs Europe

20th February 2013 HRH Duchess of Cornwall visited the centre

Cancer Detection Dog Daisy awarded the Blue Cross Medal for her pioneering work in the field of cancer detection

HRH Duchess of Cornwall became our Patron

30th October 2015 Tangle the BMJ Cancer Detection dog died after 12 years of service

We hosted the first international Bio Detection conference at Cambridge University

Urological cancer research in collaboration with Milton Keynes University Hospital announced

Parkinson's research announced. This study has been supported by the Michael J Fox Foundation

Dr Claire Guest awarded CBI National First Woman Award for Science & Technology

3rd NHS trial, Colorectal cancer

Jackie & Trinity: the 100th Medical Alert Assistance Dog partnership

2008

Cherry & Zeta: first Diabetes partnership

Pam Jones: first volunteer for Medical Detection Dogs

2009

Karen & Coco: first Addison's partnership

Rebecca & Shirley: first Assistance Dog partnership to attend mainstream school

2010

Hannah & Chica: first oncoming anaphylaxis alert dog

17 Assistance Dog Partnerships

2012

Yasmin & Nano: first nut allergy partnership

2013

Peer reviewed study
The value of trained glycaemia alert dogs published in PLoS One

2014

Peer reviewed study
Taking ten dogs to olfactory threshold published in Chemical Senses

Sam & Charlie: first PoTS partnership

2015

Judy the first CCHS (Congenital Central Hypoventilation Syndrome) Assistance Dog

64 Assistance Dog Partnerships

2016

Expanding our research beyond cancer, our Malaria detection research begins; in collaboration with the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and MRC Gambia, and part funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

Daisy's Gift published

2017

Over 600 Volunteers support the charity

2018
New purpose built training facilities and refurbished John Church Bio Detection Centre opening at our centre in Great Horwood